GIVE THE GIFT OF MUSIC!

Today the Auckland Wind Orchestra is proud to present The Sorcerer's Apprentice by Paul Dukas (arranged by James Curnow) as part of our "An Afternoon at the Movies" programme. The purchase of this work was made courtesy of a donation by The Wayne Robinson Estate. If you are interested in sponsoring the purchase of a new work to help us build our library and promote wind music please contact AWO Musical Director Hamish Arthur on 534 9624 or email: arthurfamily@gmail.com - Thank you.

AUCKLAND YOUTH SYMPHONIC BAND

The Auckland Youth Symphonic Band (AYSB) gives young instrumentalists the opportunity to play in a bigger group than many schools can muster. The players come from Intermediate and Secondary Schools from Whangapararua to Manurewa, with a few old hands from University and the work-force. The conductor, Rod McLeay, has conducted the Band since 1977, and finds it great fun.

AUCKLAND WIND ORCHESTRA

The Auckland Wind Orchestra (AWO) aims to provide performance opportunities to brass, woodwind and percussion players throughout the Auckland region. The orchestra performs a broad range of musical styles with a special focus on original wind music. Our players come from all walks of life, united by the desire to have fun while making great music. The AWO is conducted by Hamish Arthur – an itinerant music tutor working in several secondary schools throughout Auckland teaching brass and directing Concert Bands and Jazz Bands.
